

Financial Aid Fact Sheet

NEW STUDENTS

Must complete the following documents to determine financial aid eligibility:

- File FAFSA for correct academic year at: <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/fafsa>
- First-time LU borrowers applying for student loans must also complete the following: <https://studentloans.gov/myDirectLoan/index.action>
 - Entrance Interview Counseling
 - Master Promissory Note
 - Complete the admissions process

RETURNING STUDENTS

Must complete the following documents to determine financial aid eligibility:

- File a FAFSA every academic year at www.fafsa.ed.gov
- Maintain satisfactory academic progress: <http://www.lindenwood.edu/admissions/student-AFSA>

LOANS

- Subsidized Loans
 - Need-based and interest is paid by the federal government while the student is enrolled at least half-time
- Unsubsidized Loans
 - Not eligible for interest subsidy (interest accrues while student is attending school)
 - Graduate students are eligible to receive only unsubsidized loans
- Parent Plus Loans
 - Are not eligible for interest subsidy (interest accrues while student is attending school)
 - Eligibility is determined by cost of attendance and other financial aid received
 - A parent may borrow for dependent undergraduate students

Please refer to the LU catalog for further details

If verified, must complete required documents to determine eligibility

PELL GRANT

- Available to undergraduate students
- Need-based and determined by the FAFSA
- Maximum eligibility is six full-time years (600%)

ACCESS MISSOURI GRANT

- Available to undergraduate students
 - Not available during summer terms
 - File FAFSA by Feb. 1 priority deadline
 - Further requirements are listed at <http://dhe.mo.gov/ppc/grants/accessmo.php>
-

SEMESTER PROGRAM

