The R.I.S.E. Guide to Making Course Materials that are Accessible

Explanation

Many believe that

Please know that this brief guide is just the beginning. If you have questions or wish to learn more ways to make your courses accessible, please contact your R.I.S.E. scholar, Jeremy Keye in Accessibility Services, Lindenwood Online, or the Learning Academy.

Let's plan!

Choose a course that you would like to make more accessible and take a close look at the course format and materials. Keeping in mind the information reviewed above, use some of the checkers listed below to see how you could improve the accessibility of the course. Remember, the goal is to ensure that all students have equal access and do not encounter barriers to the course material.
